

Cans for Critters

If you don't like taking your empty cans and bottles back to the store, the Delta Animal Shelter has a solution for you. Just bag them up and drop them off in the bin on the left side of the building.

All money raised will go to the shelter to help with spay/neuter and medical care for the animals and operating expenses for the shelter.

